Over 80 municipal leaders to assemble Thursday morning for CCM's 2015 Annual Meeting

New CCM Executive Director to present first major address on the "New CCM" and legislative concerns as Assembly's Special Session approaches

Over 80 municipal leaders from across the state are expected to assemble for the 2015 Annual Meeting of the Connecticut Conference of Municipalities (CCM) on Thursday morning, June 18 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Cromwell.

Highlighting the meeting will be remarks presented by New CCM Executive Director Joe DeLong, starting at 10 a.m. His address will be open to the general public and all Connecticut news media.

DeLong will present his first major remarks as CCM's CEO -- outlining the future of the "New CCM" as well as legislative concerns for a more productive state-local relationship as the Assembly's Special Session approaches at the end of June.

DeLong's remarks will focus on:

- The current state of the CCM membership.
- The strengths of CCM's present and future financial condition.
- CCM operational highlights from the FY 2014-15 fiscal year.
- Legislative issues of concern as the late June Special Session approaches.
- Strategic opportunities for CCM to pursue for FY 2015-16 and beyond.
