CCM to release new public policy report assessing the state of the property tax in Connecticut in 2012, Monday morning, September 24, at the State Capitol

The Connecticut Conference of Municipalities (CCM) will release the first report of its 2012 election-season advocacy campaign on Monday morning, September 24 at the State Capitol Building that is designed to educate and influence state legislative candidates and candidates for CT's Congressional and U.S. Senate seats.

Municipal Finance In Connecticut: Overreliance on the Property Tax will assess in detail the state of the property tax in Connecticut in 2012; and adequacy of state policies now in place designed to reduce the overreliance on this tax.

The report will be:

- Emailed to CT news media at 10 a.m.
- A press availability will take place at 11 a.m. on the landing outside the State Capitol Press Room – where Jim Finley, CCM Executive Director and CEO, will be available to discuss the new CCM report and respond to any questions.
- Hard copies of the new CCM report will also be available at the 11 a.m. press availability on the landing outside the State Capitol Press Room.
