Press Advisory

CCM-member mayors from across CT to update how proposed state budget would impact their city budgets, mill rates,
and ability to deliver critical public services
on Wednesday morning, March 20, at 10 a.m.
Municipal employees also to attend

Connecticut mayors from across the state will conduct a news conference with the Connecticut Conference of Municipalities (CCM) on Wednesday morning, March 20 at 10 a.m. in the State Capitol Building on the Fourth Floor adjacent to the Capitol Press Room:

These mayors will provide an update on how cutbacks in the proposed state budget would:

- Impact their property tax rates.
- Impact their ability to (1) avoid municipal employee layoffs and (2) provide adequate levels of essential municipal services.

Each mayor will be accompanied by a key employee from their city.
